

Urban Poverty II: From Understanding to Action
Environment and Urbanization Vol. 7 No. 2 October 1995
David Satterthwaite (ed.), pp266

Note: Most of the papers were presented at the CROP workshop on Urban Poverty

CONTENTS

Urban Poverty -from understanding to action
Editors introduction

The informal housing sector of the metropolis of Abidjan, Ivory Coast
Alphonse Yapi-Diahou

Reaching the poor: lessons from the Chilean housing experience
Eduardo Rojas and Margarita Greene

Fighting poverty: the economic adjustment of female migrants in Dhaka
Shahnaz Huq-Hussain

Environmental problems inherent to a development style: degradation and poverty in Brazil
Charles C Mueller

Tackling poverty in Nairobi's informal settlements: developing an institutional strategy
Graham Alder

The myth exploded: urban poverty in the Pacific
Jenny Bryant-Tokalau

Options for municipal interventions in urban poverty alleviation
Emiel Wegelin and Karin Borgman

Squeezed: the middle class in Latin America
Alberto Minujin

Rental and rent-free housing as coping mechanisms in La Paz, Bolivia
Frans Beijaard

Differentiation among the urban poor and the reproduction of poverty: the case of Nanjido
Ik Ki Kim

Poverty in Khartoum
Adil Mustafa Ahmad and Atta El-Hassan El-Batthani